

Dracula's Circumcision: Violence Breeds Violence

Richard L. Matteoli

The hard fact is that violence breeds violence, and that, in turn, breeds insensitivity. John Douglas, FBI.[1]

(Monterey, Calif.) – More Dracula movies are made than any other genre. Was he insane, or his destiny just vengeance? He was born 13 November 1431. Dracula means Little Dragon. Historic differences exist, none directly mention his circumcision. What did he learn when studying the bible as a child?

Genesis 41:13 (Joseph Dream Interpretation): And things turned out exactly as he interpreted them to us: I was restored to my position, and the other man was impaired.

Historic Conditions

War was constant. Romania intersected the major powers from the 10th to 17th Centuries. The Turkish Ottoman Empire was East and Southeast. Northeast was Russia. Prussian, German-Saxon and Polish Empires were North and Northwest. The Austrian-Hungarian Empire was Westerly. The Holy Roman Empire was Southwest.

Rule was on agreement of the princes, other progeny and the landowning Boyars mostly from Hungary and Romania. Killing rivals was common. Two related lines vied for Wallachia, those of a Prince Dan and those from Dracula's grandfather.

Parentage

Dracula's great-grandfather was Wallachia's prince driving out the Mongols and fighting Turks. His grandfather, Mircea the Elder, was also successful against the Turks. Dracula's father was Basarab. When Basarab's father Mircea died his elder half-brother took the throne. Basarab married his second wife Princess Cneajna of Moldavia. His two sons by his first wife were Mircea II and Vlad Claugarul (The Monk).

Hungary: Ordo Draconum

Hungarian King Sigismund called on Dracula's father. Twenty-four kings and princes were to attack the Ottomans who just conquered Serbia and Bulgaria. King Sigismund put them in the Hungarian Order of the Dragon, an Order established by the Pope against the Ottoman's. Basarab was given Transylvania but wanted Wallachia then ruled by an opposing clan. Basarab now called himself Dracul meaning Dragon. Dracula was born and named Vlad.

Ottoman Turks conquered Wallachia when Dracul's cousin then ruling Prince Dan belonging to the opposing clan gave up. Dracul enlisted the aid of Hungarian King Sigismund. Dracul usurping his cousin succeeded and took rule of Wallachia in 1436.

Wallachia

Early Life

Dracula's youngest brother Radu was born. At age 5 Vlad was initiated into the Order of the Dragon. Dracula, Little Dragon, is diminutive to his father Dracul. From an early age Dracula and Radu received military training in archery and swordsmanship. Radu trained with a lesser heart preferring to play with certain other boys and this may be significant to his later decisions in life.

Along with continual military training by the men their mother ensured her children receive an education. She, other wives of royalty and Catholic monks taught: mathematics, geography, science, languages, arts, philosophy and religion.

Betrayal

Yearly Dracul paid gold to the Turkish leader Murad II to keep cities safe and giving children as human tribute. The Hungarians wanted control of Wallachia and Transylvania replacing with General Hunyadi ruling. Dracul requested Ottoman support.

In 1442 Dracul met the Sultan bringing his two youngest sons at the Sultans request for good faith. He put his eldest son from his first marriage Mircea II in rule when gone. It was a trap. They were immediately arrested. Hungarian Hunyadi with Boyar and rival support defeated Mircea II when Dracul was being held by the Sultan.

Murad II

Dracul negotiated Ottoman support to regain rule. The Ottoman's attacked and Dracul ruled again. Dracul left his two sons Dracula and Radu as human tribute. Taking Christian children as tribute was common for Islam throughout Europe including Spanish territory when they controlled Spain and Jewish support aided their rule.

Dracul

At this time Mircea II fought the Ottoman's successfully with full knowledge but no support from his father Dracul. In 1444 Dracul did not fight when Hunyadi of Transylvania with aid of new Hungarian king Ladislaus III fought the Turks. He was ordered to do so as a member of the Order of the Dragon but declined. Because Dracul's sons were being held as human tribute the Pope gave him Dispensation. Hunyadi and the Christians were defeated and they blamed Dracul for not joining.

Slavery

According to Ottoman custom Christian human tribute boys were circumcised in a public ceremony. Dracula was about 10 years old. Humiliated. Boys were then given religious instruction to become Muslims. They received military Janissary training to serve the Ottoman Empire as cavalry. Radu was easy to control and put under Sultan Murad II's son Mehmed II service including this Mehmed's pederasty.

Mehmed II

Dracula was always defiant often severely beaten. Yet as philosopher and poet Ovid said: It is right to learn, even from the enemy, Dracula did not neglect military training and education. He learned their language, religion and customs in distain.

In December 1447 Hunyadi again with Hungarian, Boyar and rival faction support defeated Dracul and his son Mircea II. They killed Dracul. They blinded and buried Mircea II alive. During this conflict Dracula, an Ottoman slave, was put in a prison and severely beaten. He had a view of Ottoman executions including impalement.

Wallachia Coat of Arms

Men were impaled anally, women vaginally. Their hands were bound behind their backs and they could only hold themselves up on the pole with their feet.

Release

When Hunyadi defeated and killed Dracul the Ottomans retook Wallachia and placed Dracula in rule hoping he was the best chance to maintain their control. Wallachia was the crossroads to Ottoman expansion into Northern Europe.

Dracula's Hatred and Discontent as a severely abused child cemented at the appropriate age such things never leave. Betrayal is a main element in PTSD. Betrayal in circumcision may have been his main Stressor Point with Abandonment as a son from a second marriage, Humiliation and Shame exacerbating. Loss of Empathy resulted.

- 1) Circumcised publically at age 10, Humiliated.
- 2) Abandoned into punishing slavery by his father, Betrayed.
- 3) Favoritism by his father for children of first marriage.
- 4) Father's betrayal of the Order of the Dragon in not fighting the Ottoman's.
- 5) For his brother Radu converting to Islam.
- 6) The custom of pederasty especially that involving Mehmed II.
- 7) Mehmed II who his brother Radu was under and later became Sultan.
- 8) The Christian born Janissaries for being traitors.
- 9) Distrust of many Hungarians and Boyars especially Transylvanian Saxons.
- 10) Those that killed his father, though he had just reservations against his father.
- 11) Those that blinded and buried his brother Mircea II alive.

Vengeance

Life continued as usual. Dracula was ousted twice and ruled three times. His first wife committed suicide rather than be an Ottoman slave. His only military battles were against the Ottoman's always using his father's Toledo sword. Betrayers to himself, his family and country he handled on a personal basis.

Castle Bran

Wallachia was in ruins due to corruption by rich Boyars and others with influence. Agriculture and business was dismal only benefiting the profiteering elite. He limited foreign trade to 3 cities. Petty crime was rampant. The peasants suffered so he armed them as a reserve army and gave some minor positions. Eventually he and Hunyadi reconciled because their main desire was defeating the Ottoman's.

As a warning against petty crime Dracula had a gold cup placed at a capital's community well. Any citizen or traveler could drink from the well using the cup. Anyone who took the gold cup would be hunted and punished. It was never stolen.

Once against corrupt Boyars, in part responsible for killing his father and brother, he made his own variant of Homer's Ulysses' Return in The Odyssey. The Boyars complained about his strictness inhibiting their profits. He invited them to come for an Easter banquet. When present he had them arrested and those who survived impaled. Here it is said Dracula dipped a piece of bread in some of their collected anal blood and ate it. Such is legend.

1499 Woodcut

Remembering his circumcision according to Ottoman custom he made a point to now Sultan Mehmed II who looked after Radu in favored ways. It was a request he knew would be refused. Trying to tax Dracula 10,000 ducats and 500 boys a year as human tribute Mehmed sent three emissaries. When they entered he requested they remove their turbans in his court's presence according to his custom. They refused. He arrested them in the fashion he, his father and brother were. Then he had spikes driven into their heads so the turbans would not come off and sent the bodies back to Mehmed II.

Vlad the Impaler and the Turkish Envoys

Dracula was truly vicious against Ottoman combatants, especially the Janissary cavalry he was trained into and his brother Radu (The Beautiful) belonged. In one campaign he killed more than 23,000 Turks. Many survivors were impaled by roadsides and left as a warning. Once Mehmed II mounted a campaign and Dracula had 20,000 Ottomans impaled where the Ottoman's were advancing. Mehmed II retreated. Both Dracula and Mehmed II applied brutal psychological warfare.

Vlad Tepes - Dracula - Little Dragon

Dracula was killed toward the end of 1476. His head was cut off and given to Mehmed II. It is not known who killed him or where he is truly buried.

Pre to Post Dracula

As a student taught by biblical scholars along with his personal experiences Dracula understood that impalement was an acceptable punishment. Archeology and the Bible have shown impalement is long existent. During recent history the death penalty for Anti-Semitism became legal in Russian Jewish Communism and impalement is still used in some form by Islam as an acceptable form of punishment.

Biblical Lessons Learned

Genesis 40:18-22 (The Cupbearer and the Baker: Blood Wine and Bread Dreams) "This is what it means," Joseph said. "The three baskets are three days. Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head and impale your body on a pole. And the birds will eat away your flesh."

Now the third day was Pharaoh's birthday, and he gave a feast for all the officials. He lifted up the heads of the chief cupbearer and the chief baker in the presence of the officials: He restored the chief cupbearer to his position, so that he once again put the cup into Pharaoh's hand – but he impaled the chief baker, just as Joseph had said to them in his interpretation.

Genesis 41:13 (Pharaoh's Dreams) And things turned out exactly as he interpreted them to us: I was restored to my position, and the other man was impaled.

Joshua 8:29 (Ai Destroyed) He impaled the body of the king of Ai on a pole and left it there until evening. At sunset, Joshua ordered them to take the body from the pole and throw it down at the entrance of the city gate. And they raised a large pile of rocks over it, which remains to this day.

Ezra 6:11 (The Decree of Darius) Furthermore, I decree that if anyone defies this edict, a beam is to be pulled from their house and they are to be impaled on it. And for this crime those is to be made a pile of rubble.

Esther 2:23 (Mordecai Uncover a Conspiracy) And when the report was investigated and found to be true, the two officials were impaled on poles. All this was recorded in the book of the annals in the presence of the king.

Esther 5:14 (Haman's Rage Against Mordecai) His wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Have a pole set up, reaching to a height of fifty cubits, and ask the king in the morning to have Mordecai impaled on it. Then go with the king to the banquet and enjoy yourself." This suggestion delighted Haman, and he had the pole set up.

Esther 7:10 (Haman Impaled) So they impaled Haman on the pole he had set up for Mordecai. Then the king's fury subsided.

Esther 8:7 (The King's Edict in Behalf of the Jews) King Xerxes replied to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "Because Haman attacked the Jews, I have given his estate to Esther, and they have impaled him on the pole he set up.

Esther 9:13-14 (Triumph of the Jews) So the king commanded that this be done. An edict was issued in Susa, and they impaled the ten sons of Haman.

Esther 9:25 (Purim Celebrated) But when the plot came to the king's attention, he issued written orders that the evil scheme Haman had devised against the Jews should come back onto his own head, and that he and his sons should be impaled on poles.

Legacy

Everyone has a Wounded and Prostitute (Negotiator) Child Archetype. Dracula's Wounded Child Archetype was circumcision. His Prostitute Child Archetype stopped all Negotiation and said: "No more child abuse, vengeance is mine."

In death he has left a legacy of abject cruelty. Though there could be righteous behavior against many, he did not restrain himself properly much of the time against people who brought out his paranoia, sadism and need to control. This, too, may be said of his contemporaries in rivalry for powerful positions.

Similar violent feudalism existed everywhere at some time. Neo-Assyrians impaled Jews. Ester helped have Haman impaled. Japan and China have given us fantasy in martial arts and sword fighting films. Violence existed in Africa where most slaves were defeated clans and sold to Muslims who then sold them to Jewish shipping merchants. Feudalism as this is present today in parts of Afghanistan and Pakistan.

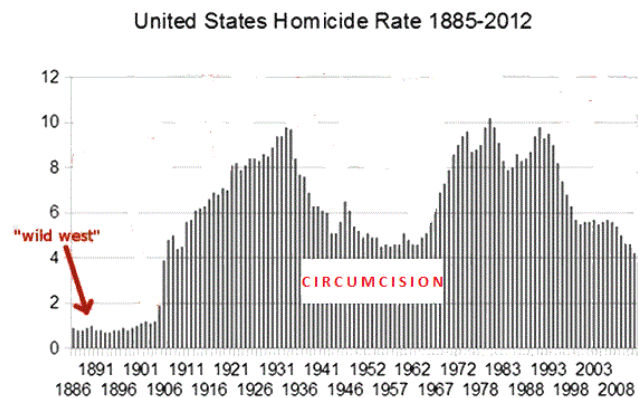

War is not as face-to-face as it was in the beginning of civilization. With each new advance in technology the Kill Zone becomes larger, more distant and less personal. Through finesse in the West on a larger scale, but with the presence of a hopeful ballot box, is our time much different? War, killing, greed.

There are direct connections to an individual's aberrant behavior as a result of all forms of child abuse. The same is true with societies that have acculturated child abuse with violence in both their internal societal expression and expressions of violence toward other societies they come in contact with.

Violence breeds violence. Dracula lived to kill his genital mutilators. Such is the twisted and twisting legacy of Dracula in madness made. Dracula's action against the Ottoman's was just vengeance. Humiliation is a main component in the Wounded Child.

The difference between Dracula to Judaism and American Christianity with our improper Medical practice in a Civil Conspiracy to commit Mayhem where the child is Genitally Dismembered is their dismemberment occurs in the Preverbal state of life. Dracula, as those of Islam, was Genitally Dismembered in the Verbal state of his mind. He had easy access to the memory otherwise stored in the Preverbal Limbic System.

Circumcision became standard in certain places in the late 1800's. Giving 20 years for males to grow after circumcision to personal violence is correlated in the graph of USA Homicide Rates. The dip is because of war where extreme social focus is concentrated elsewhere.[2,3] Social violence is the same, always supplying violent men.

Once he had killed, that taboo was gone. He realized he could do it, enjoy it, and get away with it. John Douglas, FBI.[4]
